NEWS RELEASE SUMMARY - October 11, 2006

United States Attorney Carol C. Lam announced the unsealing today of a criminal complaint charging Jonathan Daniel House with possession of child pornography.

According to the complaint, on or about August 14, 2006, Jonathan Daniel House possessed at least one video on his computer that contained images of minors, as young as three or four years old, engaging in sexually explicit conduct with adults.

According to Assistant U.S. Attorney Alessandra P. Serano, who is prosecuting the case, House was arraigned on the complaint earlier today before United States Magistrate Judge Leo S. Papas and is in federal custody. House's next appearance is scheduled for Thursday, October 12, 2006 at 1:30 p.m., before Magistrate Judge Papas for a detention hearing.

This case is being brought as part of Project Safe Childhood. In February 2006, Attorney General Alberto R. Gonzales created Project Safe Childhood, a nationwide initiative designed to protect children from online exploitation and abuse. Led by the United States Attorneys' Offices, Project Safe Childhood marshals federal, state and local resources to better locate, apprehend, and prosecute individuals who exploit children via the Internet, as well as identify and rescue victims. For more information about Project Safe Childhood, please visit www.projectsafechildhood.gov.
